HughesON™ Managed Network Services Launched in Europe

Comprehensive Networking Solutions from Hughes, Ideal for Multi-Branch Organisations

Milton Keynes, UK, 03 February 2014—HughesON™, the comprehensive suite of managed network and digital media solutions from Hughes Network Systems, LLC (HUGHES), is now being introduced to the European market. HughesON™ brings high performance, secure, and reliable broadband at affordable prices to multi-branch organisations, including utilities, retail, restaurants, entertainment and sports, hospitality, and financial services market sectors.

“Organisations cannot afford to have their networks slow down operations,” said Chris O’Dell, vice president of sales and marketing, Hughes Europe. “Today’s IT managers are dealing with a myriad of challenges ranging from new cloud and mobile initiatives, to customer Wi-Fi, rich-media signage, training applications, and more—requiring higher performance, reliability, and security. HughesON™ meets these needs with next-generation networking solutions at a very attractive price/performance.”

HughesON™ encompasses a comprehensive suite of networking and digital media solutions that enables organisations to easily deliver high-impact applications at affordable costs, such as customer-facing digital signage, and rich-media employee training. Ideal for multi-branch enterprises and government agencies, HughesON™ managed services are packaged as complete end-to-end offerings by Hughes, including needs analysis, network design, programme implementation and ongoing support – freeing customers to focus on managing their operations while Hughes manages their network.

O’Dell added, “No other service or technology provider can match our HughesON™ lineup of solutions, which employ the most cost-effective mix of terrestrial fixed, wireless and satellite networking in any customer environment. Now, IT managers can break free from their constrained networks and use HughesON™ to power their organisations and meet their objectives.”

HughesON™ is available immediately. For more information, please visit Europe.hughes.com/hughesoneurope.
